May you be encouraged at this time. He has ceased from his labors and have gone onto his reward. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. To be absent from this body is to be present with the Lord. Uncle Sammy will always be in my mind a man who walked humbly and accepting no matter what stage of life one is in. He was a man that welcomed all, and I will always be inspired by his walk in this life. May you follow in His footsteps, these are big shoes indeed.##imported-begin##Deborah Wrenn##imported-end##

“ To Aunt Lucille, Butchie, Sissy, and Kenny:

Please accept our deepest condolences. While we can't be there in body, we are there in spirit. There's nothing like family. Because whether we talk weekly, monthly, yearly, or just on occasions such as these, we know that the love of family is like no other. Our love and prayers are with you, that God will give you strength through times such as these. We will continue to keep all of you in our prayers, and even in times like these, we ask that you keep us in your prayers. Remember all of the good times, and our trials come to make us strong. Yes, Uncle Louis was strong through his storm, but God did not want him to struggle any longer. He is now in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Love,

“ Family,

Because we are transformed by God’s love, we’re able to mourn with and for others and our world, who understand and live out Jesus’ example of meekness, who hunger and thirst for holiness, who humbly offer and receive mercy, whose hearts are pure and able to see the imprint of God in all things, who seek peace, and who hold strong in our faith through adversity.

Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.? Jeremiah 33:3

We find comfort in knowing that Uncle Sammy is in heaven with Jesus. The word of God says that weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. We celebrate Uncle Sammy’s transition to glory because he has his mansion that God promised him. No more sickness and pain invades his body. We celebrate his homegoing because we know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We celebrate Uncle Sammy because he loved the Lord and the Lord loved him. Hold on to Jesus and let his light shine in you. Remember the things that Uncle Sam taught us simply by the way that he lived, how he loved and how he forgave. For it is in loving that we are loved, it is forgiving that we are forgiven and it is caring that we are cared for. Know that Uncle Sammy’s Soul Is Anchored In the Lord.

“ To: Aunt Lucille, Sissy, Kenneth, and Samuel. I Pray that God will you give strength where strength is needed at this time of the loss of your love one, my uncle. I know uncle Louis is gone home to be with the Lord safe in his arms. I know what you are going through at this time but time heals all wounds, and God will see you through this in time. I send my love, hugs, and prayers. We all are thinking of you and miss you. Lakisha, my husband and I will continue to keep you in our prayers.

May God keep you near the cross and guide and direct you through all that you are going through. If It Had Not Been For The Lord On Our Side Tell Me Where Would I be.

I pray for peace through all of this and may all of you be there for one another and stick close together. Sammy and Kenneth be strong for Sissy and your mom. I know its not easy for the both of you, but I pray for strength for all of you.

Thinking of you at this time and praying for all of you.

Even Though we are not there with you we will be there in spirit, and our prayers and love will be with you.
