“ I was in the Dunbar High School (Washington, D.C.) Cadet Corps in 1951, when Samuel served as the Battalion Adjutant on the Major's Staff at our school. At that time, I hoped that someday I could hold that same position --- having been so inspired by Samuel's performance and manner in that slot. My heartfelt wish actually came true for me in 1953 when I was selected to be the Battalion Adjutant! Although I only ran into Samuel once over the many years since my graduation, I've always had him in my good memories. My deepest sympathy is extended to you in your loss, and we can all be so thankful, now, that Samuel is in perfect Peace.

*Blessings to You All,
