“ Dear Davis Family,

I am writing you because I read about the lost of your dear family member in the paper. I am very sorry to hear about your lost and I know that it is a very difficult time to endure. However I did want to share something that was very encouraging to me when I lost my father a few years ago. The bible holds out a hope for our dead loved ones.

Please read John 5:28 and 29. God promises us that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. Along with the possibility of being resurrected they also have the chance to live forever on a paradise earth. Please read Psalms 37:9-11. It tells us that wickedness will be no more and that peace will be abundant.

Also read Revelation?s 21:3-4. It promises us no more sorrow, sickness and death. I hope that you can find some comfort reading these scriptures. I also hope they will make you feel encouraged. Please remember that you do have the hope of seeing your dead loved one again.

Sincerely,

Dorothy J,
