“ Linda and Shirley,
Since retiring from NAVSEA 2003, I routinely scan the obituaries in the Washington Post and was saddened to read about your Mother's passing. Do know that when we are absent in the body we are present with the LORD. There is truly no words that can comfort and soothe you and even more so when you are alone and have your private thoughts. But we know that all things work together for those who love the LORD. You remain in mine and Tyren's prayers. Love always, Cheryl###imported-begin##Cheryl Stover Ellsworth###imported-end##

“ Linda,
My heart goes out to you, Shirley and your family. Having traveled down the same road a few years ago, I know words are sometimes not enough to comfort our soul and spirit when we must tell a loved one goodbye. But I do know the Comforter is still on the throne and will give you what you need to sustain yourself during this time. Call me if there is anything I can do for you or just to catch up and remember the storm is just passing over. Peace and Blessings, Kareema###imported-begin##Kareema L. Clark###imported-end##

“ Dionne,

You bear a strong resemblance to your grandmother. I can see why she is so very special to you. You?re both beautiful women!! Smittie, she has her ?wings? now and she?s flying high. I know she?s singing ?home at last, home at last, ever to rejoice.? Know that you are in my heart and thoughts during this time. Take care of yourself and I?ll talk with you soon. angel

“ Hi Shirley and Linda - As you both know, Shirley and I became friends while working at the Patent Office, and shortly thereafter I became friends with the rest of the family. We have been friends for approximately 30 years. Sarah was a very caring and loving lady, remember how she liked my old handbags smile. Both of you took loving and excellent care of her and you both were blessed to have her as your mother. I love both of you and value your friendship. I will see you soon.
