

Sargent Charles Lester Dixon

December 30, 1943 - October 28, 2018

Tech Sargent Charles Lester Dixon, 74, of Camp Springs, Maryland passed on October 28, 2018.

Charles was born to John Lee Dixon and Anna Mitchell on December 30, 1943 in Winston Salem, North Carolina. He graduated from Carver High School in Winston Salem and later joined the military in 1964. He married Barbara Dixon in 1988, and they lived together in Fort Washington, Maryland.

He leaves as his legacy two children: Christina Leslie Dixon, grandson Christian Jerome Dixon and Andre Dixon. He also leaves to cherish his memory four siblings: Alvin Mitchell of Michigan, John W. Dixon, deceased, Vivian Edmonds, Deceased, and Sylvia Dixon of Temple Hills, Maryland; and devoted niece Sheila Rae Mitchell.

Charles leaves behind a host of nieces, and nephews, and relatives and friends.

Tech Sargent Dixon served his country for twenty-one years and six months. In 1984 he retired from the US Air Forces with honors. After retiring from the military, he later went to work for the United States Postal Office.

He left behind great memories and was always ready to start the grill and cook, and willing to fix things around the house, and enjoyed bowling and spending time with his grandchild.
