“ To Chell, Jazzie and Steve:

Word cannot express the heartfelt sympathy of us loosing our loved one Sean. He is resting in heaven above and shinning down on us at every moment that he can. We have to remember to cherish all the memories and the good times that we had while he was here with us. Oh were they some good times. As we travel this road we know that we have each other and as long as we know that we will be alright. Pray strength in the Lord and he will guide us all the way through. May God be with you and our entire family.

LOVE YA!!##imported-begin##Cherise and Saniya Ni Ni##imported-end##

“ "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

Michelle, Steven, Jazzie, my prayers are with you all. My dear Sean will truly be missed. Just know that God does not make any mistakes. Chell, God has given you your own Angel to look over you and to protect you. There will be so many times when you will feel Sean's presence, that is when you will know that he is right there with you always. When you feel his presence around you just smile and say I love you darling Sean.

Our family is truly bless to have had Sean in our lives. Keep trusting in the Lord and at all times, cast your cares on him, for he cares for you. Sean is gone from his earthly body; he has gained a heavenly body.

"Gone but definitely not forgotten."

Love you,

“ Sean Hatton was the Director of First Impressions at the State Department's General Services Management Office. I worked with him over the past year in my capacity in the African Affairs Bureau. Sean was also instrumental in coordinating meeting rooms for the Department's Stately Speakers Toastmasters Club and in assisting me with working with an ambassador.

Sean followed through on everything with professionalism, a positive "can do" attitude, and his trademark smile.

I want the family to know that Sean touched my life and that of so many others at the Department.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

My sincere condolences,

“ Dear Michelle & Family:

Don't just 'hang-in-there', hold on and "put your hand in the hand of the MAN who still the water". You may not know about tomorrow, you may not understand, but since you know who holds tomorrow, you could let HIM hold your hand -- so hold on & clasp your hand in HIS mighty hand.##imported-begin##Brenda Creavalle##imported-end##

“ Michelle & family,
God has a purpose for each of us, we might not understand it but it's also not for us to understand. Just remember keep God first even when you want to give up. Cherise the memories, and sometimes it might make you laugh and sometimes it might make you cry. My prayers are with you and your family.
Love always, ##imported-begin##Telethia ##imported-end##
