“ To the Family: Sharon touched many lives in a special way. May you find comfort in this poem, The Traveler. She has put on invisibility, Dear Lord, I can't see, but this I know although the road ascends and passes from my sight, that there will be no night; that you will take her gently by the hand and lead her on along the road of life that never ends. And she will find it is not death but dawn, I do not doubt that you are there as here, and you will hold her dear, our life did not begin with birth, it is not of the earth; and this that we call death, it is not more than the opening and closing of a door. And in your house how many rooms must be beyond this one where we rest momentarily. Dear Lord, I thank you for the faith that frees, the love that knows it can't lose its own; the love that, looking through the shadows sees that you and she and I are ever one. “ Message to the family . . .

Jesus will comfort you during this time of bereavement with his everlasting love. Be of good courage and know, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning". Psalm 30:5

“ As someone said, it is the dash between the birth date and the date of death that speaks about our life. The dash is everything that happened between those two dates and speaks about how that person lived. Sharon's dash holds all she accomplished and all she contributed. It holds all the friendships and all the love she shared with others. Brenda we are all sad, but I hope fond memories and God's grace will help sustain you and your family during this difficult time.###imported-begin##James Hayman###imported-end##

“ To The Family, My deepest condolences, a friend and beautiful person has gone home. Such a bubbly personality, a person that had to do it "her way", what can u say about Sharon, just a real person, so real she might say this: If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldnt cry the way you do today.
While thinking of the many things we didnt get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called her name, and took her by the hand and said her place was ready, in heaven far above and that she'd have to leave behind all those she dearly loved.
So when tomorrow starts without me, dont think were far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.##imported-begin##Rick Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of Sharon Ross,

Sharon was a huge positive cog in the wheel of our youthful neighborhood in Southeast. Together, many of us attended elementary school Davis, junior high Kramer and high school Anacostia with Sharon and her sister, Brenda.
As we went to classes together, had lunch together and played together Sharon always exemplified friendship, kindness, leadership and scholarship.

We need more like Sharon Ross.##imported-begin##Sharon Farmer##imported-end##
