“ Sharon, I can't believe the last time we talked would be our last conversation! During your mom's move, we had got to spend so much time together, a lot of conversation, the excitement in your voice for the next journey with your mom! You were and still are a very caring person, who always thought of others! You truly were special!! You were your mother's daughter and Mrs. Shands was so proud to be your mom! Although we hadn't known one another long, I feel like I had known you forever ! The address you have now may not had been the one you wanted, but God wanted you to have it! Free of pain!! Sharon, I am truly honored to have known you and you forever be in my heart! Mrs. Shands, Steven, Mr. Cephas, Mrs. Velma , Mrs. Betty and the boys, I hope that God will wrap his arms around with his strength as you go thru this part of this journey, we call life! Please accept my deepest sympathy, Diane
