“ Sharron's beautiful spirit at work, made her an invaluable colleague. The more we got to know each other, we became friends, and then my work daughter and friend. Sharron taught me so much, and together we shared our families. Sharron lifted me up through every obstacle, and she helped me achieve my bachelor and masters degree. She studied with me and when I wanted to give up, she would tell me, no, you better get it done. I loved Sharron and she loved me. I feel so lost right now, but I know she would tell me, no. You better get it together. Sharron, I will always miss you.
