“ A Sister's Love

*A Sister's Love begins the day that you draw your first breath, A continuous love, through life's ups and downs, until the day of your death.
If you're lucky, she's your confidant and stands right by your side, Sharing All your hopes, disappointments, and dreams, while sometimes being your guide.
In the times when life will try to make you feel, that you're all alone,
To hear her offer encouraging words, as you call her on the phone.
To stand together through illness, while knowing the end is near,
Letting the movie play out in your mind of the moments, oh so dear.
A relationship sometimes peculiar, when tensions were in the air, Still the knowledge of the love and support, we knew it was always there.
I wanted so much to hold you as you drifted on your way,
I hope you know that you were loved, I wish you could've stayed.
Please know that my prayer was that, you wouldn't feel all alone,
And God and Family, gone before, would welcome you to your mansion, in His Heavenly Home.
A Sister's Love, though physically gone, will never go away,
So Sharron, I say "See you later Big Sister, I'll see you again someday".*

*Love and penned by,
Your Sister, DeeDee
