“ Shelia was always a big help with a bigger smile. She will be missed by her friends at AARP.

“ Shelia will be greatly missed by her colleagues and co-workers at AARP. She was a wonderful colleague and friend who referred to her Treasury Services team as her extended family. She was always more focused on the good of AARP and her team than on herself. She had a ready smile for all and a wonderful laugh and sense of humor. Her passion for volunteering was contagious - whether as a Tax Aide volunteer or working one of our many Community Builder. She was also very active with the Capital Food Bank. And if music was playing - she was dancing! As she was facing the challenge of her illness, she shared that "You don't know how strong you are until being strong is the only choice you have."
