“ Jessie I made a mistake in the earlier message when I said Mother. That should have been SISTER. Blame it on the years and know that the same message applies because I know Shirley was a Mother figure as well as a siste 7r.

“ Shirley, you are a second Mother to me and I miss you dearly. Knowing that you are safe in the arms of our Savior is a comfort. You were my friend, confidant and conscience when I needed it, which was often. I will miss our morning phone calls and our shopping trips. Strength of character isn't always about how much you can handle before you break, it's also about how much you can handle after you've been broken. You taught me strength of character. Thank you so much
