“ My fondest memory was when you came to my wedding and all of the support that you offered at that time. My mom would always tell us stories of you and what a great person you were. 3000 miles seperated us but you were in my thoughts. Love you forever Aunt Shirley.##imported-begin##Terence Johnson##imported-end##

“ I'll never forget when I made the 45+ mile commute to visit Terence before we were married. It had been a long day for me, and I had gone into Terence's room to help him sort out some boxes and then I eventually sat down on his bed. You had been visiting Nancy, Thomas and the kids and you had been out for the day. You came in and saw me sitting there and shoo'd me out yelling at me that I shouldn't have been in there. I didn't mind, I was raised the same way, but I still find it funny to this day. You will be dearly missed. However, your love and fond memories remain with us forever.
With love,
your neice-in-law,
