“ With Dr. McAroy-Gray's departure from us, we lose a true servant of God with a deep pastoral heart and great spirituality from our Conference, and the Church militant bids farewell to one of her true daughters. We give thanks for the grace of Jesus Christ, and the blessed knowledge that she will rise to eternal life in Him. Her legacy of love and faithful service will continue on in the lives of the saints, and in particular of those called to bear the mantle of leadership in the life of the Church.
