“ Mr. Stanley Davis was a very kind man, Mr Stanley loved the Lord whenever he and i saw each other we allways spoke of the Lord. He would sell news papers on Landover Road and the Preacher would ask Stanley to come sit in for services and talk to him. He would then tell me about his experience and we would share the goodness of the Lord together. When i would visit him and Sheila he would ask me did i go to church that day? He said to me that he Love the Lord and we both would give God the Praise. He was so good to my Sister Sheila he loved her so much. To the family of Stanley Davis my youngest sister said she met you all and his family was very nice and kind and I told Andera my sister i am sure they are because Stanley was the same way "Nice and Kind" i am sure he got it from the family. My name is Linda Hill i am Sheila Hill sister and i want you all to know i visited Stanley at hospital Howard University and i sang to Stanly i prayed with Stanley he cryed with tears that fell from his left eye, i wiped his tears away and tryed to comfort him as much as possible. I loved Stanley as my Brother in Law and Proud to say that. Yes Stanley will be missed and now he is at peace. RIP my brother.
