

Stanley Massenburg

September 1, 1955 - August 6, 2006

Stanley Massenburg, was born to Gladys Massenburg and the late Plummer Massenburg on September 1, 1955 in Washington, D. C. Stanley rededicated his life to Jesus Christ in 2004. He was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 6, 2006.

Stanley was a devoted husband and son. He was generous and very fun-loving. He enjoyed sports, movies, walks in the park and dining at fine restaurants. His favorite hobby was playing video games. He was also a collector of Matchbox cars.

Stanley was educated in the District of Columbia public school system. After graduating from high school, he joined the military for several years and was honorably discharged.

After serving in the military, Stanley worked for Walter Reed Medical Center. After leaving Walter Reed, he worked several security positions throughout the Washington metropolitan area. At the time of his death, he was employed with Auto Zone.

Stanley leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted and loving wife, Debra; his mother, Gladys Massenburg of Louisburg, North Carolina; one sister-in-law, Edith Mitchell; one brother-in-law, Grady Mollenhour Irene and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

To send a lasting tribute or condolences to the Massenburg family, please sign the Online Guestbook below. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Stanley Massenburg

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM