“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Even though this is a sad time, comfort can be found in the wonderful promise found in the Bible. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Jesus cannot lie. Here he promises that our deceased loved ones will live again and we have the opportunity to see them again.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
