“ My condolences go out to the family of Stephanie Figgins. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

To the Figgins family with sympathy,

I was so sorry to hear of your lost, Death will not last forever because we have hope of a resurrection .

Lois Braxton - March 25, 2012 at 04:57 PM

Death is an enemy and painful because we were created to live forever. The resurrection give us the opportunity to see our love one again. Revelation 21:3-5

I am sorry for the lost of your dear love one. Death is such a terrible thing for the family to go through. May you draw peace and comfort from the words at John 5:28,29 Jesus has promise a resurrection of all those in the momorial tombs.
