“ I will always cherish the memory of Mrs. Sybil Ruth Marshall and the gift of her beautiful voice in the Trinity Choir at Alfred Street Baptist Church. I will never forget the moving way she led me in “Faith Looks Up to Thee”—her spirit and song touched my heart and strengthened my faith.

Her life was a testimony of devotion, grace, and music that lifted others closer to God. Though she has gone on to glory, her voice and her example will remain with me always.

With love and gratitude,

“ Sybil and I sang together in the Sounds of Symmetry for years. She was part of the group that sang at my wedding—a memory I’ll always cherish. Sybil had the sweetest soul and a calming spirit that brought peace to any room. She also knew just how to make me laugh when I needed it most.

The last time I saw her was in the Safeway parking lot, and I’m so grateful we had that moment to catch up.

Rest well, my friend. You’ve triumphantly made it home. ❤️❤️❤️

“ A beautiful voice and spirit. I had the pleasure to sing with her in Sounds of Symmetry. Rest easy and give the other SOS members a hello. Thank you to Sybil family for sharing a special woman with a voice that was rich and a spirit that was humbling. Peace unto you.
