“ Syd was a dear friend, colleague and mentor of mine at USAID 1989-1996. I'll never for get our times together. They were moments of laughter, rich conversations, and just geniune companionship. He was a decent, caring, and as said, loyal friend. When all around were compromising, and inconsistent in their humanity, Syd was the one constant person that I could turn to, and trust with anything. I was proud to know him, and honored that he counted me as his equal. I sorely regret that I didn't get to see him or talk to him one last time. I will never forget his example of black manhood. Thank you Syd. Thank you.##imported-begin##Ife Felicia Wilder##imported-end##

“ *Sydney was is my friend, a friendship that has survived for more than 30 years. He was often intense and always intellectually challenging, and he made me think. Those are very powerful qualities. He had a vast knowledge of many, often arcane, subjects.
There was a humorous side that built slowly and bursted into memorable anecdotes. He was loyal and I trusted him as a friend.*

My condolences to the Anderson family. I cherish and honor the times I had with him.

Yeah, I've been here since the 60's too. God Bless and Keep You and always remember to Cherish your Father, brother, uncle, cousin, or friend's memory. “ We have loss a powerful intellect. A person who invariably was a joy to talk with ... caring and warm. We were fortunate to have known Sid since the 1970s. We will miss him but will keep the fond memories forever.
