“ Sylvia Aretha O'Neal

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ My dear friend from childhood to teenagers to adults from Metropolitan Baptist Church. It was always us the 3 musketeers me Tawanna Carter, Carol Moore & Sylvia O'neal. You didn't see one without the other. My greatest memory was when Deacon O'neal told us to be outside a dance at 12:30 am, he was picking us up, when we weren't, he came inside standing at the top of the steps looking for us, I saw him and Carol did too, we didn't see Sylvia to tell her, your father's here. Carol & I went scrambling, we didn't want to be embarrassed. Deacon O'neal found Sylvia though who was dancing and Mr. O'neal tapped her on the shoulder, she was so embarrassed. We told her we tried to find you and tell you but we didn't want to get embarrassed either! I will never forget that and all my other memories we shared together as childhood buddies. I love you my Sylvia Aretha O'neal and you will always be in my heart forever my sister. Tawanna Carter 🙏💖💖💖

“ Sorry Sylvia exemplified the essence of an Alpha Kappa Alpha woman. Her beauty was unparalleled and her grace and graciousness were one of a kind. She was honorable and uniquely sweet and kind. Soror Sylvia we'll miss you but will join you once again as an Ivy Beyond The Wall. Rest in Peace Sweet Soror Sylvia. With Sisterly love, Soror Jocelyn Turner-Musa

“ I was shocked to hear of the passing of Sylvia. However, we know not the time nor the hour God will call us home. I reflect upon the days of growing up at Metropolitan, the day I hired her to teach at Meyer School, and her love for humanity. Sylvia will be missed greatly. God loves you and so do I. Rest in His loving care.
