“ *I had the pleasure of meeting “Nita” in 1974 at a meeting. I was immediately struck by her magnetic and warm personality. She taught me that to have a friend you must be a friend. We stayed in touch over the years and shared stories and advice that only a friend would have. I will miss her friendship and treasure it dearly. As Always,
Your Friend, Ben*

“ Synithia and I worked together at the Department of the Interior a few years before my retirement last year. My favorite memory is that Synithia and I loved to dance. She would always try to get me to “move” in the office, especially around the holidays in December. My heartfelt sympathy goes to all of her loved ones. Lavera Hamidi

PS

“ Synithia was so much fun. She kept us laughing. Synithia told really good and engaging stories. She shared practical advice, including financial planning. She would say "it's not what you make, but how you spend it." I will miss my colleague and friend. Rest in Peace.

May God forever bless and keep Synithia's beloved daughters and grandchildren!!

“ I have many many fond memories of my co-worker and friend Syn. We often had many conversations about things in life, before you know it we would bust out laughing. Synithia was my friend we had good times and bad times but overall you knew where she was coming from. I will miss her sweet smile and some of her sayings like O-K-A-Y!, and ALRIGHT THERE NOW! She has touched this office in some many ways and we will miss her dearly. May God's grace and mercy continue to be upon the family. Love Brenda Browne, Department of the Interior

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

I met Nita several years ago, 2007-2008, while on detail at the Department of the Interior. I will always remember her humor, and quick quips. My deepest sympathy to her family and all the lives she touched...May God provide strength and comfort to the family, she always talked about her grandchildren. Delleane McKenzie

I am certainly going to miss Synithia. She would often refer to me as "cousin" because we shared the same last name. As the years passed, because of her warmth and sincerity, I really began to feel like I was indeed her cousin. Synithia is a remarkable woman and will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
