“ To The Family of Tamika L. Owens (Meeka), I am overwhelmed a beautiful person has gone on to be with the Lord too soon. But we don't no the day or time for any of us when he calls us home. We worked together at Verizon for many years until I retired in 2007, I will surely miss her face--her smile--her craziness--"take no stuff attitude"! She was like a daughter to me for we sat across from each other in our cubes and we did our work and we laughed, then back to work again. ”

May God keep the Family in his care and know that weeping may endure for a night BUT JOY will come in the morning.....I will definitely miss Tamika!

*Love to all,
Mrs. Stacey (Pope) Wanzer*

“ I wanted to take a moment and offer a few words. I worked with Tamika for a number years as an employee of Verizon. Tamika grew rather close, even called one another 'cuz'. Once I left the office where we worked together, we lost touch but the love was still there. As I reminisce, I remember that Tamika always had a smile to share and a laugh to offer. I was deeply saddened when I learned of her passing and am still shocked that she's actually gone. My prayers and condolences go out to the family during this difficult and trying time.

“ Tamika,

Peace and Love from all your dear friends at Verizon. Your spirit will forever be a part of us. We all have our own personal fond memories of your friendship and will miss you forever.

Heavenly Father, the death of our dear Tamika has filled our eyes with tears and our hearts with sorrow. Wipe away the tears from our eyes that we may see through the mist, beyond death and the grave, to the resurrection of life with You. We ask Your blessings, comfort, and consolations for Tamika's loving daughter, granddaughter, mother and family. Love Always :)

“ Throughout my pregnancy I saw you, had the privilege of sharing laughs and jokes will never forget your attention and how you would not have a problem going out of your way to get me a ginger ale when i felt sick, or a vitamin c drop when i would sneeze, and asked me everyday day without fail how i was feeling, learning about your passing hurt my heart, i remember the last day i saw you on Thursday you asked me how is the baby and i said OK, you asked me if i was ready and i said yes ma'am, breaks my heart that i left and you were not in your desk and i didn't get to say goodbye, will miss you a great deal, but i know you are in a better place....RIP

“WoW Tamika it's still so unreal that your gone. I looked forward to coming to work and wondering what subtle joke you were going to tell. Being new to Maryland and D.C area from Indiana I can really don't know how I am going to get around this busy city with you gone.
.but you are in a better place.

“POEM:
Broken Chain

*We little knew the day
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain WILL LINK AGAIN..
*We love you always Tamika....

“ I knew Tamika from working at Verizon. She was a true gem...and a RIOT! She always had some funny, crazy story to tell. She was an outgoing, strong-willed, headstrong, independent, loud, funny, sweet, take-no-stuff, honest, and caring individual. God called her home too soon but I know she's in great hands. Tamika touched the lives of so many and her memory will live on in everyone she knew, befriended, loved and cared for. I hope her family can take some comfort in knowing how much she was loved. She's an Angel above now, keeping the heavens smiling and on their toes!!!! -AlexisC

“ Tamika was a very quiet, yet cheerful person. She laughed at all my jokes and she always made me smile. She had a heart of Gold. Prayers go out for her family and close friends. While we lost someone special, Heaven now has a new Angel. I will cherish every positive memory. May God Bless her family. R.I.P my friend! You truly are missed “ Tamika was fiercely independent, fun loving but true to her self and taught me so much. Celebrate her life and home going with love and hope. .

She is gone

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the loved you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she is gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on,

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Prayers and blessings.

“ Meeks was a very nice person. I would see her often in the neighborhood she lived next door to me. Such a great person. The children loved her very much. She will forever be missed.
