“ I was extremely saddened to see Tanya's obituary in the Washington Post on April 15, 2025. I only met her once--at the home service for the passing of one of my dearest friends, her brother, Lloyd. Throughout the years of my friendship with Lloyd, he often spoke about his siblings, Dennis and Tanya. He was always protective of her and talked of her lovingly. My condolences to her remaining family members, especially to her brother, Dennis. --

“ The passing of my cousin, Tanya, saddens me so. She was one of the younger set of twenty [20] cousins descended from our grandparents, Raymond and Viola Watson Montgomery. She was the youngest child of my Aunt Emma Montgomery Devore and Uncle Joseph Lloyd Devore. She was Lloyd and Dennis's little sister, Tony Medley's mom and my sister Debra Montgomery Coles' best cousin/friend.

I will always remember Tanya's beautiful face, sweet smile, and gentle voice. And I can visualize her dancing with delight to Al Green's "Love and Happiness" and Sly and the Family Stone's "Everyday People".

I hope that my dear cousin was met by her loving mother and father who are escorting her home to Glory. I pray that she will have a grand Homecoming celebration when they arrive in the Promised Land together with her brother, cousins, extended family, and Ancestors.

It will be jubilant!

Tanya, you will live forever in our hearts and minds through our precious memories of you.

I love you dear Cousin.
