“ To The Bell Family,

It is with a heavy heart that I express my condolence to the family of Terence R. Bell. Terry was my cousin on the Blackmore side of the family and we all will miss him. His death came as a shock to us, the Durham Family. It was just another reminder that life is short and we need to show our love for each other every day. I know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal, so to the family and friends I remind you to trust God in this situation and in all things acknowledge Him! We love you Terry!!!

*Peace and Blessings,
Gail Durham Haynie and Family*

“ Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same – for us that was Terry. He was many things to many people here at BCHC. He was our neighbor, friend, confidant, gardener, landscape artist, and so much more. Some say they will miss him, we say that we already miss him. With all of this beautiful weather he would have started to get his flowerbeds ready for Spring planting. To Kiani and his family know that “He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away and he heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds”. Lean on God and allow Him to continue the process of healing your broken heart.

I remember my brother as a very charming and kind person we were just beginning to know each other and he was enjoying his retirement, I will always remember his smile and remember that death ends a life but not a relationship Rest In Peace my brother Audrey

“ To the Bell Family,
Terry was our second cousin but we grew up as first cousins. He was very close to my brother, Jimmy and me. There was never a time he visited Warsaw that he wasn't at our house the day he arrived or, surely the next day. We have such beautiful memories of our childhood with him. That closeness followed us into adulthood. Jimmy and Byron just talked with Terry on Super Bowl Sunday so we were shocked and saddened to hear of his passing. We want to express our heartfelt sympathy. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Our love goes out to you. May God bless you during your sorrow and know that we are here for you.
