“ *Hello Joe and family,
I am very sorry to hear of your loss of your wife and your childrens' mother, Terrie. Joe you and I worked together at Hechts' more than 30 years' ago and I remember how happy you were when you and Terrie were going to be married. God has a plan for each and everyone of us and rest assured that He will take great care of Terrie until you meet again. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and may God continue to bless you all.##imported-begin##Janyce A. Combs##imported-end##*

“ To the Brawner Family,

Words can not express the hurt and pain you are going through and that all who loved her is experiencing. I am very proud and glad to have known Terrie both as a colleague and dear friend. I will never forget all the good times we had and all that we shared together. I am also glad to know you all and hope that we can still continue being friends. Thank you all for letting me share in your life and enjoy in your company. Terrie I love you and I will never forget you. God bless you all. Gianni, Malaysia and Jaden are so beautiful and I am positive mama2 is watching every step you make.##imported-begin##Mary Sanders##imported-end##

“ To Joe, Marlo and Kyra: I am saddened and shocked at the passing of Terrie, who was one of my closest friends in high school and in the work world. We would run into each other downtown exchange numbers and promise to call but never did. I regret that we did not follow-up with each other. I regret even more that just hours ago I learned of her passing and cannot attend her services. But I will never forget our days at Anacostia High School. Terrie, Pam Wadsworth, Wanda and Aquila and I would have so much fun hanging out and laughing. I remember Terrie's gentle spirit and kindness, I remember when she met and married Joe; I remember when Marlo was born and coming to Marlboro Plaza to see her; and later when Kyra was born. In recent years, Terrie shared with me the joy of her grandchildren and me saying I can't wait to experience that same joy. Joe, Marlo and Kyra words can not express how deeply sorry I am for your loss but I know that Terrie is sharing her gentleness and grace with the angels in Heaven. She will be more deeply missed than words can say. Her good friend and former class mate.

“ Terrie, I will miss you greatly. You were the best secretary I have ever had. Your elegance, grace, and professionalism kept me organized and able to travel all over the world without any hitches. Your sense of humor and common sense kept us both sane during any number of crazy situations along the way. I had so much fun working with you. Hiring you was one of the smartest things I ever did. I mourn your departure.##imported-begin##Barbara C. Matthews##imported-end##
