“ Mer words can not express how I felt to hear that Themla has gone on to be with the Lord. So many memories that I could share. One in particular was dearst to my heart is when she took me in when I had nowhere else to go she saved my life. I will never forget "Thelma's" act of kindness to me and her neice. So, Thelma rest in Peace from the things of this World!!

“ Thelma was more than a big cousin to me! She was like a second Mom. She always keep it real with me and gave me the best advice. She had permission to spank Eric and I whenever she wanted. I use to stay with her during the summer n weekends. One time, she told me not to call her a name. She warned me twice.!All I kept saying is your not my Mom! What did I do next? Right, I called her a name! If you know my big cuz, you know how this played out 😂 I never forget this. I love you Thelma so much. It pains my heart to see you go! I know God has better in store for you! Don't worry about your babies and grands, your babies did a great job and God will continue to protect them! Your Brothers will be fine God, love and family will get them thru. Tell Daddy, Momma, Auntie Janie & Uncle Pete, Bear Aunt Suzie: yall can eat y'all pork chops n navy beans. Together n in eternal 🙌! Rest my 👑!
