“ My condolences to the Hines family , Uncle T you will be truly missed i remember as a young child always going to your house when Daddy (Roy Hines)and mommy (Ethel Powell Hines) use to drop us there and we would play the tickle game and you use to tickle my feet until i pass gas and Aunt Mattie use to crack up laughing telling you to stop before you made my stomach hurt then she would have some sort of juice waiting for us in the kitchen to go drink yummy and a snack to eat til mom and daddy came back to get us. Auntie Mattie would always have something cooking in the kitchen. I know how deeply you missed her so and now you will be reunited . Always so found of your car the caddy lol always had a great story or two to share. The funniest one was about the old stubborn mule. lol Never forgotten and truly missed. baby girl (Butchie)

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear, loved one. Death is hard to deal with. Even Jesus gave way to tears when Lazarus died (John 11:35). But our Heavenly Father views death as an enemy and promises to put an end to it (1 Cor 15:26). We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones again.
