“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. However, Jesus showed that he is able to resurrect the dead (Mark 5:35-42). He said, “He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” (John 11:25) Jesus Christ will resurrect untold numbers of people to life here on earth—but under peaceful and righteous conditions. May Paul’s hope be yours: “and I have hope toward God ... that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15)

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this trying time, may you be comforted by the wonderful hope at Revelation 21:4: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away.”

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

The Garden in Winter

*Winter fades the garden now, Where laughter used to flower.
It makes us sad to linger here -- the minutes seem like hours.
But though we only see the loss Of what we used to know,
In time the warmth of memory Will make the garden grow --
And shades of love we thought we'd lost
Once again will show...Peeking through the snow.*

To Jackie Charles

We're thinking of you and sincerely hoping that time and warm memories will help to ease your sadness.

*Sincerely,
James & Fran Rivers*

*God has the power to calm the sea
And still the strongest gale,
He hears the cry from every heart
His love can never fail.
So trust in Him, the Mighty One
Who with His gentle care,
In His time and in His way
Will answer every prayer.*

*Thinking of you ...praying for you
Dear Jackie,
Francine called to tell us about your father's passing. We wanted you to know how sorry we are and that you're in our prayers.
Sincerely,
Marty & MaryAnn*

*May God's Love Be Your Strength and Comfort
Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you...Ps 55:22
Jacqueline,
My thoughts & prayers are with you and your family in this time of grief.
-- Mike Brhane
In every message of comfort, in every word of concern,
In every expression of love, may you feel the compassion and caring of a faithful heavenly Father who knows your every need and will continue to sustain you through this time of deepest sorrow.
Thoughts and Prayers are with you.
