“ My deepest condolences . I met Theresa as a teenager. She and her brother were good kids. Her children should be proud to have a mother who wanted to leave a legacy for them. I am a friend and hairstylist to the family. This hurts to know that she has passed. May she rest in peace.

“ Our thoughts and prayers extend to all of you who are faced with the displeasure of losing a loved one to what the bible describes our worst enemy called Death, in these critical situations it's normal to feel helpless not knowing where to turn. However, our heavenly creator has assured us in HEB: 6/11 that it is impossible for him to ever forget us, and a promise that all of those that are worthy will soon have the privilege of living again on a paradise earth. according to PSALMS:37/29. Meanwhile we can give our thanks to the funeral directors: for their perfectional assistance and their heartfelt concern toward the unfortunate friends and families.
THANKS!

“ I met Reese in Va in the early 2000's. I have watched her growth into a woman human. We communicated on so many levels. It saddens me that she fought for life so long, she was finally living. Reese I will miss you. I'm glad I told you how proud I was/am of you. 💜
