“ Sincere condolences to Ms Julia and the entire Peeler family. My fondest memories was growing up on Elmira street and having many parents. Mr Peeler, as I called him, stepped in as a dad of the block but he also made us feel he was our friend. I think he thought he was as young as us. He was a funny man but would get serious w any of us if need be, he loved to offer you something to eat and if you needed handyman services...he stepped in like our other dad. He was a statement to the Elmira block and will be missed (even if most of us have moved on). Much time has passed but our paths crossed again on Jan 9, 2020 during the homecoming service for my family member. It didn't surprise me to find him and Ms Julia assisting w the repast. He was known for always being present and serving. RIH Mr. Thomas Peeler. Sending my sympathy, love and hugs to Ms Julia, David, Nicole, grandchildren and other immediate family on this day. May fond memories comfort you all.

“ Family, I celebrate the life of cousin Thomas. He exemplified the example of what "love, kindness, joy, patience, gentleness, and faithfulness" looks like. I'll miss him, but I'll hold good memories close to my heart.

Because I'll see him again. until then, Peace & Love Sherae

“ Hey Peeler , what a caring and nurturing person you were . I remember my grandson when he was a toddler and he was a handful in church and you came to the rescue . You reach your hand out to him and he took your hand and he start smiling and you two walked together ❤️ 😊 . You will be deeply missed for charismatic personality.

“ Hey pop pop. I miss you so much best-friend. Remember this day my 12th grade prom. You was so happy to see me all dressed up. Your smile says it all. I'm going miss that smile. I'll forever cherish moments like these. I love you until we meet again.
