“ Growing up with Valerie as my sister people were always amazed that as pretty as she was she was not at all concerned about outer beauty. She was basic and wouldn't allow anyone to make their focus on the outer part of her problem. She always called me Livya and I always called her Valree. I will miss you Valerie and think about you every day.

Love you,
Livya

“ Valerie was a young mother when I met her at St. Elizabeths Hosp. Her beautiful smile and great sense of humor helped get us through some trying times on the job. She loved her family dearly. My prayers are with the family in their time of sorrow. I am sure however, that Valerie is looking down on all of you with that beautiful smile saying "I am alright".

“ Words cannot express how I feel about the loss of Valerie. Our youthful days of being at Uncle Bob and Aunt Inez's house I will always remember. We all played in my Granddaddy Jones's field as if we were Kings and Queens of Jones Mountain. The mountains produced the echoes of our Joys and Happiness as Jones kids. Now our Jones chain is broken and that link will not return until we meet again. Enjoy the Lord Valerie until we get there. WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU. REST IN THE ARMS OF OUR PRECIOUS JESUS. Your Cousin Sarah Carter

“ Valerie was my baby sister. We played search for buried treasure and rode our bikes down the big hill as children. We spoke Everyday of our lives. She called me 1 hour after the birth of each of her children. I will miss her forever. She is in heaven now. Rest now. Until I see you again.
