“ I am just finding out, Mac has been on my mind and I kept wondering why he had not called me in so long all the numbers I had were disconnected.. we met at work and became good friends when I first relocated from NY in 1997, he nicknamed me queenie.. boy we had so much fun together, he was my concert buddy and music aficionado..my heart is broken because I did not get a chance to say goodbye.. RIP dear friend. To his family my heartfelt condolences. Mac will always be in my heart..##imported-begin##JILL HAYOTT##imported-end##

“ For a moment I just had to stop and take a deep breath.I had to reach out to other family members just too make sure it was really real. Then I did what I do best, I thanked my God for having little Mc in my life. Knowing that he knows that I love him, and that he loves me. To You MY Love, rest,rest,rest,and rest. I Love You,

“ My sincere condolences to the McPhatter family. I worked with Ms. Willie at Howard University and met Mack when he came strolling into the office, like only Mack could do. We were neighbors for a while in Suitland and I will miss him also. Hang on to the good memories, because Mack and Ms. Willie, were a joy to know. Rae##imported-begin##Rae Simms##imported-end##
