“ Tommie and Jade, I cannot tell you how sorry I am for your loss. The loss of a parent or grandparent is something we never get over. We can console ourselves with the joyful thought and memories of the past and be happy in God's love for her by taking her Home to a better place. A place of no sorrow, no pain, Plenty of unconditional love and understanding. And a host of family who have gone on before her. She will be missed and thought of often, but instead of sadness, let joy override the pain and just know she's in a better place and she's smiling down on you but she doesn't want you to be sad.

God Bless and keep you always!

Love

Sandra, Christopher, Joann and Duke

One day we will all meet again!##imported-begin##Sandra Partlow##imported-end##

“ Aunt Vaso was a proud, intelligent and wonderful woman. She knew her politics. Our last conversation was about the presidency of Barrack Obama. She was very happy to see a Black man elected in her life time. She enjoyed a beautiful long life. God Bless the family. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Denise Ponder##imported-end##
