“ The measure of this man is not how did he die, but how did he live? Not what did he gain, but what did he give? These are the units to measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of birth. Not, what was his church, nor what was his creed? But had he befriended those really in need? Was he ever ready, with word of good cheer, to bring back a smile, to banish a tear? Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say, but, how many were sorry when he passed away. How very sorry we are for the void Vic's passing has brought. O, how we will miss him. Although words cannot begin to ease the sorrow of your loss Truly, Inez, Stanley, Jonathan, Darius please know that we are holding you close in our prayers and sharing in your sorrow as you walk through this time. Praying mightily for your comfort. Byron, Cynethea & Andreâ??##imported-begin##Ward and Cynethea##imported-end##

“ To: Rev. Sister Inez and family
Nothing is more painful than the loss of a beloved family member. It is painful because you are connected not only by blood but by genuine love. That love can no longer be mutually shared this side of eternity. But take courage, take heart, you will meet Victor again on that glad morning. Through grace your son is absent from the body but present with Christ! He sleeps but not forever.
We are praying for you that the Master's grace will fill your heart and sustain you through these difficult moments.##imported-begin##Rt.

“ A prayer for you: Father God, you know grief, sorrow, and heartache. When Your friend Lazarus died, You wept. Gently draw this family to Yourself in their grief. Hold them tight while they hurt. Comfort them through Your Word. Remind them that You came to comfort the brokenhearted Isa. 61:1 You are the God of hope. By Your death and resurrection You have revealed that nothing can separate from Your love.
