“ MaMa was one of my honorary grandmothers growing up... I will always cherish her sense of humor and style, her straight-forward wit and candor, her sarcasm, her smile... She was part of my village who raised me; she was someone I looked to for wisdom and realness about life. If I learned anything from MaMa, it was that we have one life to live as fully as possible--we are responsible for our own happiness, no matter what anyone else says or thinks. From appetite to hair color, you lived it up your very own way! I love you and will cherish your memory always!

To the family--I love you as my own family and I am always here for you!

*Xoxo,
Rachel*
