“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Monroe's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ I met Virginia in 1983. I remember her as a fun loving person who had a colorful way of communicating her thoughts. She was very generous in helping all the young people who came to work at the agency by offering them advice on how to dress to how to do the job. She offered advancement advice to career employment. Most of all, I will remember her laughter.

“ Mrs. Monroe was a very warm, loving, and generous person. I met Mrs. Monroe in 1983 and that meeting left me with the sound of her joyous voice, and kind and inspiring words. I remembered Mrs. Monroe for the advice she gave on how to grow and develop. I cannot help of thinking of the conversation between Mrs. Monroe and another co-worker about the occuring of events in the time-period for which they came to know --from type-writer to writing of e-mails. The two of them laughed and were so amazed to know that they have watched that transformation. Shortly after that conversation, Mrs. Monroe retired. As of this day, I can still hear her strong and joyous voice.

May the knowledge of knowing there are fruitful planted seas by your loved one lift your spirit. May the memories you cherish bring a brighter and happier day, help ease your sorrow, and comfort you always.

*With great respect,
D. Roper*
