Loving Memories of Wanda Prophet OBITUARY

Wanda Prophet was born November 29, 1958 in Washington, D.C to the late Clifton and Rose Prophet. The next to the youngest of nine children, she was predeceased by her brother, Jimmy Perkins, brother-in-law, Charles Lucas and nephew Anthony Perkins. Wanda graduated from Mamie D. Lee School in 1980. She then began her vocational career at the National Children's Center as a child care worker, which she loved and was very good at. She was baptized at an early age and later joined Ebenezer AME Church. In 1995 she moved to Maryland to live with her sister and brother-in-law, Joyce and Charles Griggs.

As a differently-abled individual, Wanda enjoyed many years and many varied experiences at Melwood Horticultural Training Center, including working in custodial services and housekeeping, eventually transitioning into their Adult Day Care Program when she was no longer able to work.

With her outgoing and enthusiastic personality Wanda enjoyed sports and participated in the Special Olympics for a number of years, winning several gold medals of which she was especially proud. She also enjoyed dancing, singing, arts and crafts and going on family trips. Her helpful, loving nature and big smile endeared her to all who met her. Even though sometimes in pain, Wanda would never complain, always answering the question, "How are you doing?" with a cheerful, "I'm fine."

She will be greatly missed and leaves to celebrate and cherish her memory, sister and brother-in-law Joyce and Charles Griggs, who lovingly cared for her for many years; three brothers, Kenneth (April), Wayne and Dwight Prophet; sisters, Jacqueline Wilson, Sandra (Robert) Grantley, and Patricia Lucas; sister-in-law Stella Perkins; five nephews, Michael Grantley, Justin McKnight, Dwight, Gideon and Gabriel Prophet; three nieces, Shara Prophet, Robyn Grantley and Erica Wilson; an aunt and uncle, WillaMae and Johnny Graham, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends, as well as several faithful caregivers over the years, including Karlyn Willoughby and Sharon Fenwick.

So rest, dear Wanda, be at peace and let your soul fly free

One day we'll join your glorious flight for all eternity.
