“ *Today, I extend my deepest sympathies to William's family and loved ones. Over the past 20 years I have known William as part of the Holy Comforter family, he has been our loved and cherished member. I was fortunate to be able to visit him when it appeared that he was on his way to healing and to remind him just how much we loved and missed him and how much we longed for his return.
While I will forever miss him, I have a lifetime of beautiful and hilarious memories to cherish forever. William, may you rest in peace and love, together with all of our Holy Comforter saints. To the family and loved ones, God bless, console, strengthen, and keep you all, bringing you in His own time to a place of peace and acceptance.##imported-begin##Monalie Bledsoe##imported-end##*

“ I will miss Uncle Jim. He never sugar-coated, told it like it was; basically he kept it real and always did what he said he was going to do. We got along well because we both have a sick, sarcastic amongst other things sense of humour A Stansbury trait.

My last conversation with him just before, he had me laughing because he said "A Toyota is a piece of crap, you me needed to get a Mercedes-Benz."

Going to miss you.

Your Niece,

Dee

“ The family has my deepest sympathy. I remember Mr. Stansbury was a nice and kind gentleman. Mr. Stansbury drove the hearse for my father's funeral over 14 years ago. He was the one who stated "stay strong and keep praying". I offer the same words to the family that Mr. Stansbury stated to me 14 years ago.###imported-begin##Sherlita Rogers###imported-end##

“ My last conversation with Uncle Jim, he told me "A Toyota is a Piece of Crap, you need to get a Mercedes Benz." It still makes me laugh the way he said it.

As I remember him, Uncle Jim always told it like it was...Never sugar-coated anything, always said what he was going to do. Uncle Jim kept it real.

Miss you!
