“ Family, I was so saddened to here of Uncle William's transition. I have so many wonderful memories of the times spent as a child at your house. Since his passing, all kinds flashbacks have occupied my mind. I will always be grateful for Uncle William bringing my Sister Charlotte into my life (we have become very close). Unfortunately, life has a way of going so fast, we forget about the important things, FAMILY! I LOVE you all so much and look forward to seeing Aunt Barbara and the rest of the family soon. May GOD continue to BLESS you!

*Love

Please accept my deepest condolences in your time of loss. The pain we feel in the passing of a family member is a price we pay for our humanity. I hope that you will be consoled by the love and care of friends and the embrace of family as you remember and mourn your loss. You are in my prayers today and always.*
