“ For the rest of our days we will mourn the loss of man who gave his all. William Bowden was filled with wit and charm, kindness and strength but most of all love. His love and devotion to his family and his country was both inspirational and admirable. He proved his ability to rise to any occasion no matter how perilous by his service to our Nation as a member of the Armed Forces and to our Nation's Capital as a member of the Metropolitan Police Department. It was with integrity and undying devotion that he gave everything a man can give to his country and his family. We will always remember William and his generous warm nature, but most of all we will remember him as a man of courage, strength and devotion. Our deepest condolences are with William's family and all those who loved him. We pray that they know how William touched the lives of many who wish them strength and peace during their hour of need. God Bless ...

“ I remember Mr. Bowden as a young man growing up in SW Washington, DC when is was coaching for the #4 boys club. I am living proof of how he extended his life out-side of his family to care for others. I share with his family the fond memories, and my sincere condolences.##imported-begin##Maurice Hall##imported-end##
