William Little Jr. was born on November 25, 1928 to the late William and Julia Little in Durham North Carolina. Raised predominantly by his grandparents, the late John & Hestoria Godett, he was introduced to faith as a child and educated by the public-school system until he graduated from Hillside High school in 1945. William would continue to live a passionate life dedicated to service, work, love and faith.

William was a former veteran (air force), a graduate of A&T University with a B.S. & M.S. in Industrial arts, and a proud member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc. A passionate musician, William could play the bass & lead guitar as well as the trombone. He was fluent in music theory. Nick named "Chicken Little" by his bandmates, He was privileged to accompany many artist & groups inclusive of Doug Clark and The Hot Nuts, The Max Webster band, Tina Turner, Little Richard, & more.

He retired from the Durham public school system where he taught both marching and concert band, as well as industrial arts. He eventually relocated to District Heights to rejoin them and he remained there until death. William was a truly a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and Jesus follower.

William was proceeded in death by his son and daughter Terrence and Denise Little, and his grandson Darius Jackson. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Ellen Washington Little, his beautiful daughter Brenetta Jackson, three handsome grandsons Raimon Jackson (Brenetta), Everett Harrington Jr. (Denise), Rashad Adams (Terrence). Seven precious great-grand children, Kimora Cole-Jackson, Marisa, Kamron, Eva, Davis, Everett III, and Eden. A son-in-law, Everett Harrington Sr., and a host of extended family.
