“ What an awesome human being!

Mr. Mumby rented me my first apartment, took a chance on me as a teen mom. He and his wife were kind and treated me with respect.

Mrs. Mumby encouraged my daughter to read and often gave her books to read.

Mr. Mumby was a wise man. I learned a lot about responsibility simply by observing their lives when he came by for weekly rental payments.

My sister and I were at a restaurant some years ago and encountered Mr. Mumby. He said how proud he was of, that he felt his labor was not in vain. That was one of my proudest life moments to date.

I'm sorry I found out about his transition too late. -Hopefully Mrs. Mattie, will read this and learn how thankful I am to both of them.

Godspeed to you Mrs. Mattie

“Mr. Mumby was an asset to the students when we were at Coppin in the 70s. He was easy to talk to and always ready to assist the students with a welcoming smile. In later years it was always a pleasure to see him as my friend with the beautiful ready smile and warm sense of humor. He will be missed. To Mattie and the family cherish the memories you created they will comfort you in the midnight hour. Valerie Fraling

Please know that many sympathize and empathize with you and your family during this time of mourning. Your father impacted so many. His loss is even larger than what he accomplished during his earthy life. For your family, the time he spent with you may never seem to be long enough. I pray you have some comfort with many fond memories and knowing he is at rest and peace.

Peace and Blessings,
