“ I met the Woodard family at the beginning of my 4th-grade year at Green Valley Elementary - approximately 50 years ago!

Pop Woodard immediately became a father figure to me; from him being a volunteer with the school PTA, our scout troop, and the Silver Hill Boys Club. He was definitely a warrior in my "village"!

Honestly I didn't fully recognize his impact on my life until I became a father - his impact greatly influenced how I raised my children!

I'm extremely grateful for Mama Woodard, and also Donald, Ronald, and Karen, for unselfishly sharing their father with me!
