“ Mr. Coleman was a distinguished and very fine gentleman. I met him several years ago when I attended and was a member of the great John Wesley A.M.E. Zion Church in Washington, DC. We, along with several other friends / members sat on the same pew in a particular section of the sanctuary each Sunday morning during worship service. He was a man of great wisdom with a sincere love for his church and for its members, especially for the young people who gave tirelessly their gifts and talents in serving the church each Sunday morning during worship service. In addition to several other programs, Mr. Coleman will also be remembered by the church membership as a loyal (BLUE RIBBON MEMBER) financial supporter of the JOHN WESLEY A.M.E. ZION CHURCH SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM. It was indeed an honor for those of us who had the privilege to know Mr. Coleman.
