“ Niecy it has been quite a while sense I have talked to you but the day you passed away I was disappointed because the us and the boys didn't get to say goodbye, but I was also happy because I didn't want to see you in that pain. Even though I cried everyday after that I pulled myself together and I told myself that you are in a better place and you are peaceful and not in pain of having to live with this burden. So I came here to tell you how much we all miss you and that even though your gone you will never be forgotten and you will always be in our hearts no matter where we go we will always remember the way you could light up a room with your humor and how you gave great advice and how a great aunt, mother, and sister you are. The whole family misses you wish you were still here and we love and miss you .

“ Today is your birthday, but there's not a day that goes by that I don't speak your name. Thoughts of you are constant. I was lost in memories of our wedding day just last night as I listened to Brian McKnight sing the song that I marched to to meet you at the alter, "The Irreplaceable Love of My Life".

Forever your loving wife...Robin

“ "Sometimes, after my husband's gone to bed, I sit at my computer, relishing the solitude as I do my work. But the moment I crawl into bed and slide into the crook of my husband's arm, the aloneness falls away. His gently warming body tethers me, keeps me feeling together and safe and understood- without the slightest awareness on his part. Miss you baby.....

“ i carry your heart with me (i carry it in my heart) i am never without it (anywhere i go you go, baby; and whatever is done by me is your doing, my darling) i fear no fate (for you are my fate) i want no world (for darling you were my world, my true) and it's you who are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you here lies the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows higher than the soul can hope or mind can hide) and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart i carry your heart (i carry it in my heart)

“ Hey Dad, I feel better coming here to remember you rather than your social page. It seems to always be some drama going on and as you know, I don't indulge. I just wanted to stop by to let you know I still think of you. It's funny, your passing makes me feel so close to you. I guess you being with Jesus and the relationship we share is the reason for that. I will be back to speak to you again soon. <3

I will remember him sitting in meetings with all his literature in front of him because he loved to read it. I will remember his great smile and his gentle caring spirit. Rick will be sorely missed.*
