“ My memory of my Uncle Willie was stern but yet fun to be around. I always felt safe with him. I remember me and my brother would have a dance contest and Uncle Willie would have a ball watching us in the competition. I miss him and he will never be forgotten. Love you, Uncle Willie

“ Always the quiet man with undeniable presence; Uncle Willie always had something positive and profound to share. I'm going to miss the grip of that handshake with that reassuring smile and his anecdotal quips. "Help ya self; don't hurt ya self!" He's at peace now. May his peace somehow bring comfort to those he loved and loved him.

“ From The Desk of Mrs. Addie Scipio Hagan's:

Remembering My Former Student, Willie G. Lancaster

In Countless Gentle, Kindly Ways, Willie Lived A Sermon, All His Days.

Believing In The Folk He Knew And Making Friends, His Lifetime Through.

Enjoying Life, It's Work And Fun, He Sought The Best In Everyone.

Living His Faith From Day To Day, He Sowed Good Seed Along The Way.

Now Death Has Set, His Spirit Free, In Fields Of Immortality.

To Claim A Task, Of Greater Worth Than Any, He Had Known On Earth.

May He Rest In Peace And May His Memory Be A Blessing.

AMEN

“ We will never forget the love and concern Willie shared with our daughters when they were in his home. He introduced Taylor to the ham sandwich, and she had to have one, everyday (with Willie) after school (lol). That was their after school ritual.

His spirit stayed with Taylor, and she is the better for having known him and Carole. We are grateful for everything he did to support our family.

“ I am indeed sad about the passing of my 2nd cousin.
Who was more than a cousin an uncle, & friend. Never turned u down always listen & gave his point of view. Now I must do my own hands work!
So long Uncle Willie u will be missed but God knew u were tired &
called u home
Tired& he called u home to rest. To his wife Juanita , Sorry 4 ur loss. May God
continue to bless & keep u his loving arms. Cousins, Linda Brooks & Nellie Robinson, Wilson, N.C.

“ Dear Sister Carolyn, my heart is broken at the loss of your husband and my brother-in-law Willie G. Lancaster. Willie was not only my Brother-in-Law but he was also my role model and mentor. He always reminded me too "don't buy no wooden nickels". I will cherish our relationship forever. You and Willie opened your home to Me, JoAnn and Darrell almost every weekend and beyond when JoAnn and I got married. We shared so many memorable and unforgettable times together. Willie was a good and loving man and while we mourn his loss today, we will cherish his memories forever. The thing that Willie would want us to know now is that "It is well with my soul". With much love, Ronnie.
