“ Although I had not seen Willie Mae in years, I did speak with her a couple of years ago and we happily reminisced the good ole days. We even exchanged Christmas cards.

I remember her mother, Mamie Croskey, as a loving and caring mother. Helena, Thomas, Sherman, Willie Mae and Maurice were like siblings to me.

I never met her husband, Amos, but she spoke of him as her loving soul mate.

May God bless the family doing this sad time. Be strong because God has your back.##imported-begin##Juanita McClary-Pearson##imported-end##
