“ Dearest cousin Billy,
I am going to miss you. You were such a good person. You was the type of cousin who, as far as I'm concerned, spoke his mind. I loved that about you. At the same time you loved your family. Cousin Becky, you and your children, my cousins, are in my prayers and my thoughts. Stay strong and prayed up. I love you all.

“ I can't put together enough words to express my love for you dad. My heart is heavy, not from the hurt of you being gone but from the many memories you created for me in my lifetime. Yes it hurts that you're gone, but I truly realize that to be with the Lord you have to transition from the flesh. I'll miss not seeing you and hearing you complain about wanting to go home but now you're truly at your eternal resting place. I'm at peace with knowing that you knew I loved you because after every visit I made it clear by telling you before I walked out your room door. Now once again I will say I love you dad!

“ Uncle Billy, you are missed! You were a blessing in our lives when Aubrey and I were young military kids needing family and welcoming in a new state. We used to love coming over to visit to see you, Aunt Becky, & our cousins; we looked forward to it during a hard time in our lives & you were there for us. So many memories; Miss you & Love you Uncle!
