“ Mr. Norman,
Sad news always come at a untimely time just as the receiving of the news of your leaving us.I know GOD knows best were he wants us to be in service to him and I know it pleased you also. I will forever cherish the time you shared with me and the personal advice you left me with. Your smile still confort me. Your Earth Day will be even more special now and I am still not comfortable in calling you Willie like you asked me to.I still have to work on that one. Keep the camera ready and you will not have to tell anyone to smile because the one that you have will cover it all. Love you.
